

OBAMA IMPEACH

BATTERED President Barack Obama is fighting desperately for his political life as a tidal wave of anger, distrust and resentment sweeps America, resulting in a growing crusade for his impeachment!

As the Commander-in-Chief is accused of abusing his power, lying to the nation and foreign policy blunders that have weakened the country, more than 500,000 people have signed an Internet petition titled "Impeach President Obama & Remove Him from Office!" Now the rattled politician fears his presidential legacy is in ruins, a White House insider says.

"Republicans and Democrats alike are calling his administration a total disaster," says a political operative. "Americans are fed-up with his lies, cover-ups and weakness when it comes to standing up to Russia and dealing with other international crises. It's not hard to see why the calls for impeachment are growing louder."

And critics charge the case against the man in the Oval Office includes:

- Shocking breaches of national security when he revealed a nuclear terror bomb attack on New York City was his greatest fear.
- Lying to bury the truth about what happened during the attack on the U.S. consulate in Benghazi where his failures led to the death of the American ambassador and three others.
- Abusing his power when the IRS refused or delayed tax exemptions to Tea Party groups that oppose him.
- Getting outfoxed by evil Russian leader Vladimir Putin, who played him for a patsy in Syria and during the recent invasion of Crimea.
- Hiding his real intentions about ObamaCare and sweeping the facts under the carpet.
- The belief his Hawaiian birth certificate is fake, that he was REALLY born outside the U.S. and not eligible to be President.

Even other elected officials including Texas Lt. Gov. David Dewhurst have joined the drive to oust Obama. Says Dewhurst, "Barack Obama should be impeached. Not only for trampling on our liberties, but what he did in Benghazi is just a crime."

"The man has committed crimes that do not warrant his staying in office," including high-handed changes of ObamaCare rules and his lies about the medical insurance program.

Meanwhile, lawyer Orly Taitz, who is running as an Independent in the California attorney general election, insists the President has tricked the entire nation and is a fraud. Taitz charges Obama wasn't born in the U.S. AND uses a bogus Social Security number that is as fake as his birth certificate.

She also accuses Obama of "violating immigration laws," saying, "He unilaterally decided to allow people to get into this country and stay here illegally."

Many Obama critics are calling him "worse than Nixon," when it comes to lies and cover-ups, as GLOBE has reported. President Richard Nixon resigned in the face of impeachment – and Washington, D.C., insiders suggest Obama could share the same fate.

The intense pressures caused not only by his damaged public image and failing policies, but also by his crashing marriage are pushing the President to the brink, says a White House confidante.

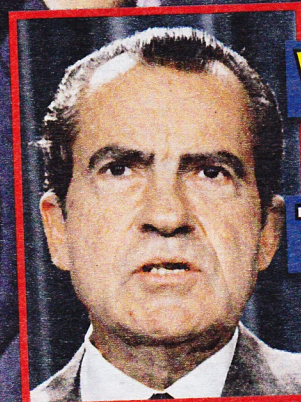

"He's lost it," says the confidante. "He's so crazed by the way things are spiraling out of control, he even begged Pope Francis to pray for him when he visited the Vatican!"

"But nothing seems to be helping." Tragically, his image as a decisive and firm leader has been shattered by Putin, who pushed him around during the Syrian crisis and has made him look weak when Russia annexed Crimea even though it belongs to the Ukraine.

"Obama can't do a thing about it. Putin is mimicking him, mocking him and laughing at him. He's making Obama a joke on the world stage."

Says Sen. Ted Cruz (R-Texas), "The only thing Putin respects is strength. At this point the Russians are openly laughing at the President."

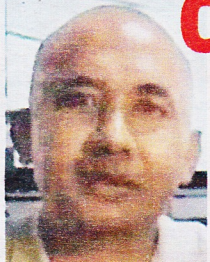

And a marriage crisis has people laughing behind the 52-year-old Commander-in-Chief's back. Bossy First Lady Michelle stormed out after
