Dear Congressman Smith,

I would like to express my sincerest concerns to you on the matter of our national security. Since the election in 2008, the highest law of our land, the Constitution of the United States, has been breached. As a citizen of this country, I am most devastated that both the Rules and Administration Committee sitting Chair, Senator Diane Feinstein, and then Ranking Member, Senator Bob Bennet, never acknowledged my pleas to investigate and vet the candidate in question, Barack H. Obama, the now sitting president.

The citizens of America have made numerous attempts to bring this matter to the attention of Congress, but no one has listened - until recently. A most tenacious American, Dr. Orly Taitz, was allowed a meeting with your legal counsel, Holt Lackey. . I would kindly like to thank you for allowing this time from his busy schedule on this urgent matter of national security, as I have personally made numerous attempts seeking Congress' assistance to investigate this matter.

I am so pleased to learn you graciously allowed an opportunity for this meeting to occur which included, but was not limited to, a reading of the pleadings and an initiation of a congressional investigation. I certainly would hope there would be a committee formed and Dr. Orly Taitz would be encouraged to testify at these hearings. Her vast knowledge and consistent research on this subject are both critical in establishing the truth.

I would like to thank you again for the time and attention you have yielded to listen to the facts surrounding this most urgent matter.

Respectfully yours,

Sarah Redd

CC: Mr.Holt Lackey, Counsel to the Judiciary Committee
