Plaintiff herein, Dr. Orly Taitz, Esq. ("Taitz") is bringing this emergency motion during November 30, 2011 hearing for following reasons. Plaintiff submitted an amended motion for rehearing on November 15, 2011. It was received by the court by certified mail and signed by an employee of the court Lorraine N. Kanzai. In fact Ms. Kanzai received 2 packets with the same pleadings, as the plaintiff noticed that in the first package there was only one copy of the pleadings, so a second package was sent on the same day by Plaintiffs assistant Lila Dubert. Exhibit 1 shows that 2 packages were received by the court. Clerk's office never docketed those pleadings and never forwarded them to judge Nishimura.

Taitz v Fuddy Emergency motion to docket and forward to the judge pleadings received by the court on November 21, 2011 1

Plaintiff arrived in HI yesterday and found out that another pleading, "Reply to opposition", submitted by Fed Ex was rejected by the court and never docketed as well. As Plaintiff submitted 2 copies of the "Reply to opposition", she questioned the clerk of the court and the clerk for judge Nishimura in regards to the amended motion. Nobody could find it. Plaintiff is respectfully asking Judge Nishimura to order the clerk's office to docket the pleadings that were received and forward it to the judge's chambers for review. Plaintiff, also, requests the court to use its' inherent powers to investigate, why above pleadings were not docketed and not provided to the judge. This is particularly important in light of the fact, that Taitz is a political decedent leader, who submitted to court the most explosive evidence, showing that the sitting President is using a Social Security number, which was not assigned to him and an alleged copy of his birth certificate, was shown to be a computer generated forgery. On a number of occasions pleadings submitted by Taitz were not docketed. In a number of cases evidence points to the fact, that the judges did not see the pleadings and the signature of the judge is missing from orders, particularly in cases, submitted to the Justice of the Supreme Court Clarence Thomas and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of CA Ronald M. George. In some instances pages were removed from transcripts.

Taitz has been subjected to harassment, intimidation, slander, defamation, sabotage of her web site and e-mail accounts, threats to her and her family and tampering with her car, when a fumes emissions hose was disconnected and hot combustible fumes went back to the car, whereby the car could catch fire or explode with her, her husband and her three children in the car.

Taitz is forwarding a copy of this emergency motion to the FBI and the Secret Service.

In light of all of the above, she requests the court to give this matter and the underlying case an outmost importance. As long as there is cover up and hiding of the original documents of Mr. Obama, there is an incentive to sabotage a civil rights attorney, seeking to inspect those records.

Respectfully submitted
