

In conclusion this commission has to reconsider its decision and enter into evidence documents submitted by Taitz. In light of the documents submitted, Obama cannot be allowed on the ballot. The evidence is so incriminating against Obama, that it is a civic duty of the members of the commission according to their oath of office not only to disallow Obama on the ballot, but, also, to forward these findings to the fraud investigation unit of the office of the Secretary of State, as well as Marion county district attorney and Attorney General of Indiana for criminal investigation and prosecution of Obama.
